

VAD Conference 2021: Partial Reopening of Call for Papers

The postponed VAD conference 2020 (see vad-africachallenges.de) which will be organised in a hybrid format reopens the call for papers for selected panels only which will take place in a virtual conference from 7 to 11 June 2021.

The Call will be open from 15 January to 15 March 2021. Please send your application to the convenors directly (see addresses below). Please do not resubmit papers you have already submitted during the first call for papers. The convenors will inform you directly about the outcome of your application after the deadline. Please send a maximum of 500 words plain text. Please do not send additional attachments unless the convenors ask for it.

The panels accepting new proposals are:

Nr	Title	Convenors and contacts:
P08	Challenging the Rule of Law: The African Laboratory	Jonas Bens jonas.bens@fu-berlin.de Leonie Benker leonie.benker@googlemail.com
P27	Governing African mobility: actors, institutions and practices	Johara Berriane johara.berriane@googlemail.com Elieth Eyebiyi eelieth@yahoo.fr
P39	Seeing like a space: A methodological challenge for African Studies	Susann Ludwig susann.ludwig@uni-leipzig.de Julia Büchele j.buechele@unibas.ch
P50	Writing a novel, or writing Africa? Recent fiction by writers from Africa and the challenge of addressing problems in African societies without reproducing hegemonic stereotypes about the continent	Anja Oed aod@uni-mainz.de
P53	What does it take to decolonize the VAD (Association of Africanists in Germany)?	Hans Peter Hahn hans.hahn@em.uni-frankfurt.de Abimbola O. Adesoji aadesoji2@yahoo.com

All other panels are closed and do not want to receive new proposals.